

EXHIBIT 16

Robinowitz, Joe

From: Guzman, Sandra
Sent: 9/4/2009 12:59 PM
To: Robinowitz, Joe
Subject: RE: Supreme Court Investiture

I am going to take a personal day and go cover it.
It's historic and I want to be there to record history.

Also, wanted to let you know that I will be writing freelance story for two non-competitive media -- style.com and Latina magazine.

Thanks
Sandra

From: Robinowitz, Joe
Sent: 9/4/2009 12:51 PM
To: Guzman, Sandra
Subject: Re: Supreme Court Investiture

I think not. That's what we've got a washington bureau for.

From: Guzman, Sandra
To: Robinowitz, Joe
Sent: Fri Sep 04 12:42:12 2009
Subject: Supreme Court Investiture

Hi Robo,

On Sept. 8th, Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor will be seated officially -- the ceremony is called an investiture. Its a pretty big deal for Supreme Court watchers-- for the nation.

I'd like to go to DC and cover the story for Tempo. (9/16)

I need authorization to travel for the day to Washington DC.
(Cost of tickets will be around $350 round trip.)

Please let me know ASAP since I will need to buy train tickets.

Thank you.
Sandra

Sandra Guzmán
NEW YORK POST
Associate Editor